Recruitment services

Strategic and operational consulting
Optimize your relationship with clients, local staff and partners.

Are you looking for new business opportunities in France or do you need some strategic or operational advice?

Our expertise in cross-border Corporate Administration and Customer Relations can help you to improve the workflow and communication with your clients, prospects and local team.

With a permanent presence in Sweden, and in France we can easily come to you, study your case, prepare an action plan and help you execute it.

Search for multilingual positions

Find the best candidates for the position and for your company.

With over twenty two years of recruitment experience, a real knowledge of French and Nordic business cultures, we understand your needs and are able to find the most suitable candidates for you.

We are specialized in multilingual positions and adapt to your corporate culture to assess candidates or partners relational, linguistic, commercial and administrative skills.

We can take care of the whole recruitment process or only a part of it depending on your resources.

"The strong growth of our company and of our ambitions means that we require a high-performance partnership when it comes to recruitment. Charlotte and her team were able to pertinently analyse our needs and search with perseverance for appropriate candidates.

Thanks to their efficiency Scandi bureau contributes to our rapid development, to the great satisfaction of our Swedish Head Office."

Olivier Cibot
South West Europe Director at ESBE

"in 2004, we were about to launch our services in France. Scandi Bureau was the perfect partner, as we needed both Scandinavian understanding and language skills towards our staff in Sweden and a firm local knowledge of the French market and Language.

We asked Charlotte and her enthusiastic team to assist us and they are still doing in 2011.

Scandibureau were also helpful in finding an additional resource in sales that became one of our four Market Partners".
